Luina Greene Farm | www.luinagreine.com

Luina Greine Alpaca Farm is located at 65 Common Street in Groton. The farm is open for tours every Saturday and Sunday from 10am–5pm. During your visit to the farm, make sure to feed one of the 12 friendly alpacas, pet a miniature donkey, Shetland sheep, Nigerian dwarf goat, and, our newest addition, a halfinger pony! Don't forget to stop and do some shopping at the country store, where everything Alpaca is available for purchase (Alpaca socks, mittens, hats, scarves, teddy bears and much more!!!). Schedule a birthday party with us or learn more about the farm at www.luinagreine.com.

LuLaRoe

LuLaRoe is a hot new clothing line sold exclusively in online or in-home parties across the country. The pieces are comfortable, flattering, FUN, and unique. Each print of fabric is used for only 5,000 pieces of clothing so you aren't likely to find the same item on anyone else. There are (famous, buttery soft) leggings, skirts, shirts, dresses, and kid's clothes. Sizes range from 00-24/26, so there is truly something for every body.

Webster Bank | www.websterbank.com

Webster Bank's heritage dates back to 1935, when 24-year-old Harold Webster Smith founded the bank with $25,000 borrowed from family and friends. Over the years, we have expanded to become a leading regional bank in the Northeast with over $25 billion in assets and 176 banking centers from greater New York City to Boston. But, while we have grown, our core values have remained unchanged. We still put people first — acting with responsibility, respect, ethical behavior, citizenship and teamwork. We call these principles “The Webster Way.” They bring us together, set us apart, and create an unshakeable core that is unique to Webster. Make sure to stop by our table today, say “Hi,” and enter the drawing for Bruins tickets!
